

Sweet Holiday Traditions - A Christmas Carol * Hershey Sweet Lights * Deck the Halls

Tis the season to join us for two great shows. The first show is a recreation of A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens' great-great-grandson, Gerald "Charles" Dickens. This one-man show is presented at the Country Cupboard in Lewisburg. An accomplished actor, director and producer Gerald has created his own one-man rendition of this timeless classic. Then to sweeten the day we are off to Hershey to drive through more than two miles of illuminating Hershey Sweet Lights display. In Lancaster, attend the American Music Theatre acclaimed 2020 Christmas show Deck the Halls. Awe-inspiring music and dance, outstanding voices, warm humor, and familiar holiday cheer will impress and inspire you. It will warm your heart and touch your soul with world-class entertainment and sentimental tributes to the true meaning of Christmas.

Tour Details

Tuesday, December 8

Travel to Lewisburg, Pennsylvania, with rest stop en route. Arrive at Country Cupboard for a BUFFET LUNCH followed by free time to shop and browse before the matinee performance of A Christmas Carol recreated by Charles Dickens' great-great grandson. If anyone overhears an old miser growling "Bah Humbug," it's likely to be Ebenezer Scrooge, or maybe his distant great-great grandson. Inspired by Charles Dickens' 1860's masterpiece, the presentation features a captivating reading of A Christmas Carol, complete with Scrooge's initial denial of the three spirits who visit him. There is no denying Gerald "Charles" Dickens' popularity with his one-man show. Departing Lewisburg late afternoon, travel to Hershey for dinner on your own before our Hershey Sweet Lights driving tour. This winter wonderland awaits with nearly 600 illuminated, animated displays from the comfort of the motorcoach driving through two miles of wooded trails! Today's final destination is at the Amish View Inn and Suites in Bird in Hand for your overnight stay.

Wednesday, December 9

BUFFET BREAKFAST at the hotel. Check-out and travel to Eli's Countryside Road Stand for a little holiday shopping before arriving at the American Music Theatre. Attend the mid-morning Christmas Show Deck the Halls with orchestra seating. The critically acclaimed Christmas Show has become an enjoyable tradition for many and is renowned as Lancaster's most beloved holiday show. With awe-inspiring music and dance, outstanding voices, warm humor and familiar holiday cheer will fill the theatre once again. It's sure to be the highlight of your holiday season. After the show our last stop in Lancaster will be at the Kitchen Kettle Village for lunch on your own and time to visit this quaint, walkable village home to local cooks, quilters and shopkeepers. We head home with sentimental Christmas memories until next season!
